PITTSBURGH, June 4.—The Giants slammed their way into first place to-day, beating the Pirates by a score of 12 to 0. Not only did Phil Douglas shut the Pittsburgh team out, but he limited it to one hit, a scratch single by Carlson Bigbee in the first inning. The ball on which Regbee got his hit was a sharp grounder that Kelly fielded cleanly, but e runner reached the bag in safety by beating Kelly's toss to Douglas,

Douglas went steadily on, pitchingo perb ball and not a Pirate runner w first base until, with two out in e ninth inning. Bigbee got there on a mble by Kelly. Douglass also con-ibuted three hits to the assault on loner.

Wilbur Cooper, who had been care-ully groomed for the game, was piti-ully ineffective and when he was hit sard the Pirates fell to pieces behind im. Cooper retired from the game & the sixth inning and Johnny Morri-on, a recruit, was called in to finish t. A crowd that filled the stands and the space back of the ropes stretched round the outfield saw the Pirates abjected to this overwhelming defeat, The attendance was placed unofficially t 23,000.

Groh Is Member Of Giants Again In Big Exchange

WORD received from Cincinnati yesterday confirmed the exformer captain and star third baseman of the Reds, is now a member of the Giants. The deal which brings Groh to the New York club s completed yesterday morning, according to persons in close touch

The Giants will transfer Third Baseman Rapp and two other players, probably Outfielder Benny Kauff and the veteran pitcher, Jess Barnes, to the Cincinnati club, in addition to a large sum of money The deal will not be formally announced by the local management until Groh has been restored to good standing in organized baseball. It is expected notice to this effect will be received from Judge Landis

Groh signed a contract with the Reds several days ago at a salary of $10,000 a year, but only on condition that he be traded to come other team. The Cincinnati club other team. The Cincinnati club had also received offers for the star infielder from the Dodgers and the Pirates, but the Giants were in better position to hand over to Pat Moran the players he needs to strengthen his badly shattered outfit. Groh played with the Giants in 1912 and 1913.

The score:

Reg sprung on the Dodgers to-day by Manager Evers of the Cubs, and the Dodgers surprised Evers by taking the measure of Alex and his fellow Cubs by 4 to 3.

Sherrod Smith pitched for Brooklyn to-day, and by gaining the decision tied up the series, to date each team having won one. Sherrod was hit for tensingles and two doubles, but with a bit of luck in the eighth inning pulled through. Alexander went eight in mings and allowed nine hits one of which was a home run by Tom Griffith over the right field screen in the eighth inning. That was the hit that won.

The real excitement came in the eighth inning, when the Cubs would have tried up the game but for a slip by Clarence Twombly, a pinch runner. Kelleher doubled to center in the eighth after two were out. He scored on Tom Daly's double to right. Twombly had turned third and was half way home, easily accaded of any throw Wheat wheat could make, when the fell flat on his wheat then threw to Miller, who wheat the tries of the tri
